Dodson joins AgHeritage Farm Credit Services Credit Department

Jacob Dodson has joined AgHeritage Farm Credit Services as a Credit Officer in the company's central office in Little Rock.

A native of Atoka, Tennessee, Dodson holds a degree in Finance Management from Arkansas State University. He most recently served as a Credit Intern with AgHeritage this summer.

"We are excited to have Jacob stay on in his new role," said Jason Hill, Vice President of Credit. "His performance, skills and work ethic have been impressive this summer, and we are sure he will be a good fit and an asset to the Credit Department and to AgHeritage."

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services is a customer-owned rural and agricultural lender with owned and managed assets of approximately $2.80 billion as of December 31, 2024. The company provides credit and related services to approximately 6,700 farmers, ranchers, rural residents and the agribusiness industry in 24 Arkansas counties, with branch offices located in Batesville, Brinkley, Lonoke, McGehee, Newport, Pine Bluff, Pocahontas, Searcy and Stuttgart.
