Adam Reinert joins AgHeritage Farm Credit Services as Enterprise Risk Management Analyst

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services has announced the hiring of Adam Reinert in the role of Enterprise Risk Management Analyst.

Reinert, who holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with emphasis in Marketing and Management from Arkansas Tech University, will be based in the association's Central Office in Little Rock. He brings more than 10 years of financial and customer service experience to the role, having most recently worked as Regulatory/Compliance Senior Consultant at EY, the multinational professional services firm formerly known as Ernst & Young.

"We are excited to welcome Adam to the AgHeritage finance department," said Cara Brazeal, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. "His experience at EY, combined with his understanding of the credit industry, including mortgage loan processing, make him an asset to the team."

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services is a customer-owned rural and agricultural lender with owned and managed assets of approximately $2.80 billion as of December 31, 2024. The company provides credit and related services to approximately 6,700 farmers, ranchers, rural residents and the agribusiness industry in 24 Arkansas counties, with branch offices located in Batesville, Brinkley, Lonoke, McGehee, Newport, Pine Bluff, Pocahontas, Searcy and Stuttgart.
