Steeland takes Credit Officer role at AgHeritage Farm Credit Services

Morgan Steeland has transitioned into the role of Credit Officer with AgHeritage Farm Credit services, the company has announced.

Steeland joined AgHeritage in 2022 as an Agricultural Lending Officer in the company's Brinkley Branch. He holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Banking, Corporate, Finance, and Securities Law from Mississippi State University and will receive his Master of Business Administration from Southern Arkansas University this December.

Steeland will continue to be based in Brinkley. "We are excited to have Morgan join the Credit Department," said Jason Hill, Associate Vice President & Senior Credit Officer. "He has proven to be a dedicated employee since joining the company, and his analytical and communication skills and attention to detail make him a valuable asset to the team."
