AgHeritage Farm Credit Services to return $10.1 million in profit sharing through Patronage Program

For the 20th year in a row, AgHeritage Farm Credit Services will return a portion of the association's net earnings to its customer-owners through its Patronage Program.

This year, the program will return $10.1 million to eligible customer-owners in February.

"Since 2006, AgHeritage has returned a total of $96.65 million in profit-sharing to eligible customer-owners through our Patronage Program," said Greg Cole, AgHeritage President and Chief Executive Officer. "This program has, for two decades, supported the economic health and long-term sustainability of the rural communities in our service area. By returning margins, we inject capital directly into local economies, which benefits not only farmers but also small businesses and infrastructure."
