Sydney Munnerlyn joins AgHeritage Farm Credit Services as Appraisal & Insurance Administrator

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services has announced the hiring of Sydney Munnerlyn as an Appraisal & Insurance Administrator, based in the company's Lonoke Branch office.

In this role, Munnerlyn will provide administrative and project management support to the appraisal team and oversee insurance activities. She previously served as Member Service Representative with Lonoke County Farm Bureau. She has also worked in administration at her family's business, Lonoke Collision Center.

"We are excited to welcome Sydney to AgHeritage," said Drew Vance, Chief Appraiser, AgHeritage Farm Credit Services. "As a Lonoke native, she understands the people in the community and their needs, and her office and customer-service skills will be an asset to the team."
