Claire Geurin joins AgHeritage Farm Credit Services as Ag Lending Officer

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services has announced the hiring of Claire Geurin as an Ag Lending Officer in the company's Batesville Branch office.

A 2021 graduate of Lyon College, Geurin holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration and Management. Before joining AgHeritage she worked in Secondary Mortgage Administrative Support at First Community Bank in Batesville. She also has previous experience in Trust and Wealth Management and Administration, and management experience from her time with Chêne Gear.

"Claire brings strong financial knowledge and a genuine commitment to serving rural communities," said Bo Tretenburg, VP of Lending and Regional Manager. "We are excited to have her join our Batesville team and look forward to the relationships she will build with our farmers, ranchers, and rural customers."
