AgHeritage announces Kyle Overton as new Business Intelligence & Analytics Lead

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services in Little Rock has hired Kyle Overton as Business Intelligence & Analytics Lead in the company's Central Office.

Overton holds a bachelor's degree in business and computer information systems independent studies from Murray State University, and a Master of Business Administration Degree from the University of Phoenix. Before joining AgHeritage he served for five years at the United States Food and Drug Administration as a Management & Program Analyst. He has also served as an Operations Research Analyst in the U.S. Department of the Navy and as a Survey Statistician at the USDA National Agricultural Statistics Service.

"Kyle's vast experience in business and analytics will make him a valuable addition to the Finance Department," said Cara Brazeal, Senior Vice President & Chief Financial Officer, AgHeritage. "We are excited to welcome him to the team."

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services is a customer-owned rural and agricultural lender with owned and managed assets of approximately $3.08 billion as of December 31, 2025. The company provides credit and related services to approximately 7,000 farmers, ranchers, rural residents, and the agribusiness industry in 24 Arkansas counties, with branch offices located in Batesville, Brinkley, Lonoke, McGehee, Newport, Pine Bluff, Pocahontas, Searcy and Stuttgart.
