AgHeritage Farm Credit Services announces results of Director election

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services has announced the results of its 2026 Board of Director and Nominating Committee elections.

Charles “Jeff” Reeves (Central Region) of McCrory was elected to his first 4-year term. Reeves farms rice and soybeans on 2,167 acres owned and 90 acres rented. He is a former AgHeritage Nominating Committee Alternate and a former board member of Arkansas Certified Crop Consultants. He is also a former board member of the McCrory School District Board of Education, having served 15 years as Board President. Reeves holds a Bachelor of Science in Plant Science from Arkansas State University.

Derek Haigwood (Northern Region) of Newport was re-elected to his second 4-year term. Haigwood farms corn, cotton, rice and soybeans on 3,500 acres rented. In addition to serving on the AgHeritage Board of Directors as the current Chairman of the AgHeritage Risk Committee, and a member of the Audit Committee and Executive Committee, he also serves on the Jackson County Farm Bureau Board. He is a former member of the U.S. Soybean Board and U.S. Soybean Export Council. Additionally, he represents AgHeritage on the AgriBank Nominating Committee. Haigwood holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture Business from Arkansas State University.
