Barola promoted at AgHeritage Farm Credit Services

AgHeritage Farm Credit Services has announced the promotion of Angelica Barola to the role of Participation Loan Accountant II.

Barola is based in the company's Central Office in Little Rock. She first joined the AgHeritage accounting and finance team in January 2022 as a Loan Accounting Specialist. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and Finance from the University of Central Arkansas and has previous experience in mortgage collateral documentation.

"Angelica's promotion is a testament to her hard work, dedication, and outstanding contributions," said Cyndi Hamric, AgHeritage Loan Accounting Manager. "We are glad that she is a part of the team, and are excited for what the future holds for her."
